ALL SORTS.

Six sacks of amalgam arrived at the Carson Mint last night.

The box sheet for Nick of the Woods is open at Harris' drug store.

The Opera House skating rink will reopen Wednesday evening. Don't miss it.

Fifteen cases of butter were shipped to San Francisco last night from the creamery.

"What's Dobson getting so drunk for?" "He's just seen his picture in the China New Year's edition."

The U. S. Supreme Court yesterday decided in favor of Boyd in the Nebraska Governorship contest.

A Farnham drum is the thing to drive away cold while this low temperature is disagreeably apparent.

The county commissioners did not appoint a janitor at their meeting yesterday. There are several applicants.

The smallest constituency of any Congressman is that of Bartine of Nevada, who represents only 45,761 people—the entire state.

Governor Colcord yesterday appointed C. C. Powning, M. D. Foley and Joseph Marzen members of the State Board of Agriculture.

There is no farther use of the newspapers crowing over Chili. She has given us a ladylike apology and that ought to be the end of it.

Yesterday was a dull day with occasional flurries of snow and patches of blue sky. It was on the whole, bad enough weather for California.

The English press say that Chili made a sacrifice of her dignity because she had no hope of succeeding in war, and thus made a virtue of necessity.

Over $100 was realized for the Episcopal Church exchequer from the apron tea given at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Belknap on Saturday afternoon.

N. P. Wildrick having left Carson, Mr. Clark will continue the business of the Oyster Bay restaurant, and make some substantial improvements about the place.

Bierce puts the Chilean matter in a nutshell, America remarks to Chili.
"You have notified our minister to leave Chili. If you don't apologize we will immediately withdraw him."

Everybody in San Francisco has the grippe, the pneumonia or the croup, and now the Chinese passengers from the small pox ship are running about the city hunting some place to sleep.

Frank Barnes, of Reno, is the agent for the celebrated Victor cycles.
If you desire an attractive and illustrated catalogue free, send your address to Frank Barnes, Golden Eagle Hotel, Reno, Nev.

The average number of patients in the Insane Asylum in 1891 was 180, and the expense of maintaining them, including salaries of officers and attendants, $42,323 78. This shows the cost per day per capita to have been 62 cents.

The San Francisco Press Club has over 200 members. Inside of this is another organization known as "The Kickers." They wear a gold K on the left lapel of their coat and are headed by Philips and Todd, two Kickers from the head waters.
Kickers are rapidly swelling, and comprise the live men of the club.
To hear either of these men making a Kicking speech is worth all the dues and fees incidental to a years membership.

This is how a San José paper dishes up Tom Fitch's book:
"Better Days, or A Millionaire of Tomorrow," is the name of a novel; the joint authors of which are Thos. and Anna Fitch. It takes up the much vexed question of social, political and financial reform, peppering the whole with a certain amount of love and sentiment.
If the book were weeded of its love and romance it might pass muster as a dissertation upon finance and social problems. If the finance and social questions were extracted it would be a tolerable love story. As it stands it has too much of the one for the other, and too much of both for one.

FOR SALE—Hard finished dwelling house, seven rooms, barn, orchard, etc. Reasonable terms. Apply to Mrs. Billings.

WENT OVER THE LINE.

Prize Fighters Run Out of Washoe.

On Saturday afternoon Zach Taylor of Carson, and Chas. Campbell of Reno, started to engage in a prize fight for $200 and rode about eleven miles from Reno, just over the county line, to avoid arrest, as the Washoe authorities had run them out of the county. They pitched the ring by roping up three trees, making a three cornered enclosure. They fought six rounds, stripped to the waist in a snowstorm with thin gloves.

Taylor got the best of the fight from the start and tripped his man twice. The referee warned him against a repetition of his work but he paid no attention and again tripped Campbell who was awarded the fight on a foul in the sixth round. There was but two carriage loads of people from Reno and they say the whole affair was a job to beat a sheepherder out of a few hundred. The pugs got all he had. They talk of matching Campbell with Brannan.

Of Interest to Mothers.

The following description of the Albino baby, discovered at Fresno is published in the Republican. The child is the offspring of fullblooded Indians living in the Sierra Mountains. The baby is healthy and fat, with skin of almost alabaster whiteness, hair of silky whiteness, and about eight inches in length. The little one was waked up and two pretty bright pink eyes gazed upon the reporter. The child is only six-months old and weighs twenty-seven pounds, is about two and a half feet in length, and is really a most remarkable and pretty baby. The features are the regular Indian type.
The mother belongs to the Meewoc tribe, is 17 years old, and goes by the name of Princess Janto, and is as pretty as her name. In fact, for a squaw, she might be termed beautiful. The father is 19 years old, has a regular Indian cast of features, and is known as Dick, the son of Chief Dick of the Wallashumnes tribe.

Rolls of Honor.

The following is the Roll of Honor for Miss Gileoly's class: Willie Hanson, Alice Hannan, Jennie Mills,

Bergmann, Freda Gladding, Alice Henderson, Laura Ulrick, Martha Ardery, Millie James, George Kramer, Edith Kersey and Cora Elliott.

The following is the Roll of Honor for Miss Wagner's class: Louise Farretti, Gertrude Bird, Ada Meyers, ovich, Lena Mara, Clara Piper, Harry Zehner.

The following is the Roll of Honor for Miss Wasson's class: Daisy Tweedy and Lulu Johnston.

Why Omitted?

How is it that the portraits of Supreme Court Clerk Joe Josephs, State Printer Joe Eckley, Warden
Frank McCullough and Superintendent Bob Grimmer do not appear in the special edition of the News? Was it because they failed to put up $10.
—Tribune.

The fact that the people whose portraits were in the News put up $10 or $15 apiece is all right. It was probably a graceful way of acknowledging services performed by the paper in the last State campaign.
